FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Saint Matthew places the scene of the Ascension on an unnamed mountain. This indicates that the significance of this scene lies not in its location but in its symbolism. The mountain signifies the realm of the divine, where God dwells and where the evangelist also wishes to place Jesus. To this holy mountain where God resides, that is, where the fullness of truth, beauty, freedom, and above all, love, is found, Jesus invites us to ascend, to be happy with Him forever.

Jesus remains with us always.

Where do I encounter Jesus?

2. Do I seek Him along the paths He proposes?

San Mateo, sitúa la escena de la Ascensión en un monte sin nombre. Con esto nos indica que lo interesante de esta escena no es el lugar, sino el simbolismo. El monte significa el ámbito de lo divino, donde está Dios y donde el evangelista quiere situar también a Jesús. A ese monte santo donde está Dios, es decir, donde está la plenitud de la verdad, de la belleza, de la libertad, y, sobre todo, del amor, ahí nos invita Jesús a subir para ser felices con Él para siempre

Jesús se queda siempre con nosotros.

1. ¿Dónde me encuentro con Jesús?

2. ¿Se buscarlo por los caminos que Él me propone?
